On the Option Effective Date that a Service Contract related to Off-Site Records becomes a Retained Optional Contract, the Off-Site Records subject to such Retained Optional Contract that are not Off-Site Bridge Records become Transferred Bank Records and the Bridge Bank will have no further obligation with regard to such Transferred Bank Records pursuant to this Agreement.

Prior to relinquishing any such Leased Data Management Equipment, the Bridge Bank will, unless otherwise requested by the Receiver, (i) remove all data from such Leased Data Management Equipment in a manner that renders it unrecoverable and is otherwise acceptable to the Receiver, and (ii) certify to the Receiver that the Bridge Bank has performed its obligations under this Section 2.06(f).

Section 2.07 Employee Benefit Plans; Health Plans

(a) Employee Benefit Plans. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no defined benefit plan or defined contribution plan is a Transferred Asset or Transferred Liability unless and until the Receiver exercises its option to transfer a defined contribution plan to the Bridge Bank pursuant to Section 2.05 after the Bank Closing Date.

(b) Health Plan.

(i) Failed Bank as Sponsor. If the Failed Bank was the sponsor of a Health Plan, the Receiver contributes and assigns the Health Plan to the Bridge Bank and the Bridge Bank accepts and assumes and agrees to pay, perform and discharge the liabilities and obligations of every nature or kind, accrued, fixed, absolute, contingent or otherwise of the Failed Bank under and with respect to the Health Plan.

If there is a bank holding company that owned the Failed Bank and is the sponsor of a Health Plan, the Bridge Bank may request that the Receiver request that the sponsorship of the Health Plan be assigned to the Bridge Bank. If the bank holding company agrees and the terms and scope of the assignment are acceptable to the Receiver and the Bridge Bank, the Bridge Bank may assume sponsorship of the Health Plan.

Section 2.08 Manner of Conveyance; Nonrecourse. THE CONVEYANCE OF ALL TRANSFERRED ASSETS AND ASSUMED LIABILITIES BY THE RECEIVER TO THE BRIDGE BANK UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS MADE “AS IS”, “WHERE IS”, WITHOUT RECOURSE OR WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO TITLE, ENFORCEABILITY, COLLECTIBILITY, DOCUMENTATION OR FREEDOM FROM LIENS OR ENCUMBRANCES (IN WHOLE OR IN PART), OR ANY OTHER MATTERS.

ARTICLE III PRO FORMA, ADJUSTMENTS, AND SETTLEMENT

Section 3.01 Pro Forma Statement. As soon as practicable after the Bank Closing Date, in accordance with the best information then available, the Receiver will provide to the Bridge Bank a pro forma statement (the “Pro Forma Statement”). The Receiver will prepare the Pro Forma Statement, in its discretion, to reflect any adjustments of such liabilities and assets as may be necessary. Such Pro Forma Statement will take into account to the extent possible, among other things, (a) liabilities and assets of a nature similar to those contemplated in Sections 2.02(a) and 2.03(a), respectively, which were carried in the Failed Bank’s suspense accounts on the Bank Closing Date, (b) accruals as of the Bank Closing Date for all income related assets and business of the Failed Bank, attributed to the Bridge Bank thereunder, whether or not such accruals were reflected on the Failed Bank Records in the normal course of operations, and (c) adjustments to determine the Book Value of any investment in an Acquired Subsidiary and related accounts on the “bank only” (unconsolidated) balance sheet of the Failed Bank based on the Equity Method of Accounting, whether or not the Failed Bank used the Equity Method of Accounting for investments in subsidiaries, except that the resulting amount cannot be less than the recorded equity as of the Bank Closing Date as reflected on the Failed Bank Records of the Acquired Subsidiary. Acquired Subsidiaries with negative equity will be restated to $1, pursuant to the Equity Method of Accounting. The Pro Forma Statement will establish the net value of the Transferred Assets, and the Assumed Liabilities that comprise the contribution made by the Receiver to the Bridge Bank pursuant to this Agreement and will be reflected as the Receiver’s investment in the Bridge Bank on the Receiver’s books.

Section 3.02 Correction of Errors and Omissions.

(a) Adjustments to Correct Errors. If any bookkeeping errors or omissions are discovered in preparing any Pro Forma Statement or in completing the transfers and assumptions contemplated hereby, the Receiver and Bridge Bank agree to correct such errors and omissions, it being understood that, as far as practicable, all adjustments will be made consistent with judgements, methods, policies, or accounting principles used by the Failed Bank in preparing and maintaining the Failed Bank Records, except that adjustments made pursuant to this Section 3.02(a) are not intended to bring the Failed Bank Records into accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) Adjustments for Liabilities. If the Receiver discovers at any time subsequent to the Bank Closing Date that any Claim exists against the Failed Bank which is of such a nature that it would have been included in the liabilities assumed under Article II had the existence of such Claim or the facts giving rise thereto been known as of the Bank Closing Date, the Receiver may, in its discretion, at any time, require that the liability related to such Claim be assumed by the Bridge Bank in a manner consistent with the intent. The Receiver will make appropriate adjustments to the Pro Forma Statement provided by the Receiver to the Bridge Bank pursuant to Section 3.01 as may be necessary.

(c) Other Adjustments. If the Bridge Bank or the Receiver discovers any errors or omissions as contemplated by Section 3.02(a), the Bridge Bank and the Receiver agree to promptly correct any such errors or omissions, make any payments, and effect any transfers or assumptions as may be necessary to reflect any such correction [plus interest].

(d) Adjustments for the Exercise of Call or Put by the Receiver. If the Receiver exercises a call or put upon assets or liabilities, pursuant to Sections 2.05 or 2.06, the Bridge Bank agrees to promptly adjust any account as of the date of the receipt of the notice.

(e) Informational Tax Reporting. The Bridge Bank agrees to perform all obligations of the Failed Bank with respect to federal and state income tax informational reporting related to (i) the Transferred Assets and the Assumed Liabilities, (ii) the Retained Assets and the Retained Liabilities, and (iii) any other asset or liability of the Failed Bank.

Section 3.03 Article II Settlement Process

(a) Settlement Designee. Immediately following the Bank Closing Date, the Receiver will identify a settlement agent to administer payments contemplated by Article II (the “Settlement Agent”) and the Bridge Bank must (i) appoint a settlement point of contact (the “Settlement Designee”) to work with the Settlement Agent and their designees, and (ii) complete, execute and return to the Settlement Agent the Settlement Designation Form attached as Exhibit 3.03.

(b) Article II Settlement. The Settlement Agent and Settlement Designee will aggregate the information necessary and cooperate to execute payments of the amounts being tracked, netted and settled between the Receiver and the Bridge Bank pursuant to Article II.

(c) Article II Settlement Policies and Procedures. The recurring settlement of all amounts due to either Party pursuant to Article II will occur in a manner consistent with policies and procedures provided by the Receiver to the Bridge Bank after the Bank Closing Date. All notices and other communications between the Settlement Agent and the Settlement Designee regarding the settlement of items under Article II pursuant to this Section 3.03 will be handled as required by the policies and procedures provided by the Receiver to the Bridge Bank and will not be subject to the requirements of Section 9.05. The Receiver will complete the settlement of all obligations and liabilities under Article II on or before eighteen (18) months after the Bank Closing Date, unless such time frame is extended by the Receiver pursuant to a notice to the Bridge Bank.

ARTICLE IV DEPOSITS

Section 4.01 Payment of Checks, Drafts, Orders and Deposits. Subject to Section 4.06, the Bridge Bank agrees (a) to pay all Assumed Deposits, properly drawn checks, drafts, and withdrawal orders of depositors related to the Assumed Deposits presented for payment, whether drawn on the check or draft forms provided by the Failed Bank or by the Bridge Bank, to the extent that the Assumed Deposit balances to the credit of the respective makers or drawers assumed by the Bridge Bank under this Agreement are sufficient to permit the payment thereof, and (b) to discharge, in the usual course of conducting a banking business, the duties and obligations of the Failed Bank with respect to the Assumed Deposit balances due and owing to the depositors of the Failed Bank.

Section 4.02 Notices Regarding Deposits.

(a) Notices to Depositors. Within thirty (30) days after the Bank Closing Date, the Bridge Bank will give notice by mail to each depositor of the Failed Bank of the following, as reflected in the form notice attached as Exhibit 4.02(a):

- (i) the assumption of the Assumed Deposits of the Failed Bank;
- (ii) the procedures to claim Assumed Deposits to this Agreement;
- (iii) the rate(s) of interest which the Bridge Bank has determined to pay and of each depositor's right to withdraw funds without penalty as provided in Section 4.03; and
- (iv) if the Bridge Bank proposes to charge fees different from those fees formerly charged by the Failed Bank, the Bridge Bank must include its fee schedule with its mailed notice.

(b) Public Notice. The Bridge Bank will also publish notice of its assumption of the Assumed Deposits of the Failed Bank, in the form attached as Exhibit 4.02(b), in a newspaper of general circulation in the county or counties in which the Failed Bank was located.

(c) Approval of Notices and Publications. The Bridge Bank must obtain approval of the final form of all notices and publications required by this Section 4.02(a) and (b) from the Receiver prior to mailing or publication.

(d) Validation. The Bridge Bank will provide the Receiver (i) an Affidavit of Publication attesting that it complied with the publication requirements outlined in Section 4.02(b) and (ii) an Affidavit of Mailing (in the form attached as Exhibit 4.02(d)) attesting that it mailed the notice to depositors as required by Section 4.02(a).

Section 4.03 Interest on Deposit Liabilities; Withdrawal. The Bridge Bank agrees that it will accrue and pay interest on Assumed Deposits, from and after the Bank Closing Date, at a rate(s) it determines; provided, that for non-transaction Deposit liabilities such rate(s) will not be less than the lowest rate offered by the Bridge Bank to its depositors for non-transaction deposit accounts. The Bridge Bank must permit each depositor to withdraw, without penalty for early withdrawal, all or any portion of such depositor's Assumed Deposit, provided however, that if such Assumed Deposit has been pledged to secure an obligation of the depositor or other party, any withdrawal thereof is subject to the terms of the agreement governing such pledge.

Section 4.04 Payments of Deposits. If any depositor does not accept the obligation of the Bridge Bank to pay the liability of the Failed Bank related to Assumed Deposits and asserts a claim against the Receiver for all or any portion of any such liability, the Bridge Bank agrees to provide to the Receiver funds sufficient to pay such claim in an amount not in excess of the liability related to the Assumed Deposit reflected on the books of the Bridge Bank pursuant to Section 6.02(c) after such claim is made. Upon payment by the Bridge Bank to the Receiver of such amount, the Bridge Bank is discharged from any further obligation under this Agreement to pay to any such depositor the amount of such Deposit liability paid to the Receiver.

Section 4.05 Unclaimed Deposits.

(a) Final Legal Notice. Fourteen (14) months following the Bank Closing Date, the Bridge Bank will provide the Receiver with a list of all Assumed Deposits (including information regarding the type of account) that have not been claimed by the depositor. The Receiver will review the list and authorize the Bridge Bank to act on behalf of the Receiver to send a Final Legal Notice in the form attached as Exhibit 4.05(a)-1 (the “Final Legal Notice”) to the owner(s) of the unclaimed Assumed Deposits. The Bridge Bank will send the Final Legal Notice to the depositors within fifteen (15) days following its receipt of the Receiver’s authorization. The Bridge Bank will prepare an Affidavit of Mailing in a form attached as Exhibit 4.05(a)-2 attesting that it complied with the notice requirements outlined in this Section 4.05(a).

(b) Unclaimed Deposits. If any depositor of the Failed Bank does not claim or arrange to continue such depositor’s Assumed Deposits at the Bridge Bank within eighteen (18) months after the Bank Closing Date, the Bridge Bank will, after the end of such eighteen (18) month period, (i) promptly refund to the Receiver the full amount of each such unclaimed Assumed Deposit (without reduction for service charges) pursuant to Section 6.02(c), (ii) provide to the Receiver a schedule of all such refunded Assumed Deposits in a form prescribed by the Receiver, and (iii) assign and convey ownership of the Bridge Bank Records related to the refunded Assumed Deposits and any new records generated or maintained by the Bridge Bank related to the refunded Assumed Deposits to the Receiver. At the time the unclaimed Assumed Deposits are refunded by the Bridge Bank to the Receiver, the refunded Assumed Deposits will no longer be Assumed Deposits, the Failed Bank Records related to such Assumed Deposits become Receiver Bank Records, and the Bridge Bank will provide custody services to the Receiver for the new Receiver Bank Records pursuant to Section 5.01. During such eighteen (18) month period, at the request of the Receiver, the Bridge Bank will promptly provide to the Receiver schedules of unclaimed Assumed Deposits in such form as may be prescribed by the Receiver.

Section 4.06 Account Holds, Withheld Payment. At any time, the Receiver can direct the Bridge Bank to withhold payment of all or any portion of any Assumed Deposit balance. Upon receipt of such direction, the Bridge Bank agrees to hold such Assumed Deposit and will not make any payment out of such deposit balance to or on behalf of the depositor, or to itself, whether by way of transfer, set-off or otherwise. The Bridge Bank agrees to maintain the “withheld payment” status of any such Assumed Deposit balance until the Receiver provides notice regarding the disposition of such Assumed Deposit balance or the release of the “withheld payment” status. At the direction of the Receiver, the Bridge Bank will return all or the requested portion of such Assumed Deposit balance to the Receiver pursuant to Section 6.02(c) and any such returned deposit will no longer be an Assumed Deposit. If such Assumed Deposit balance has been paid to the depositor prior to the time the Receiver demands the return of all or a portion of such depositor’s Assumed Deposit, the Bridge Bank will not be obligated to return such deposit balance to the Receiver; provided however, the Bridge Bank must reimburse the Receiver for the amount of any Assumed Deposit balance or portion thereof paid by the Bridge Bank in violation of any direction to withhold payment related to such Assumed Deposit, pursuant to Section 6.02(c).

Section 4.07 Offsets. At the direction of the Receiver, the Bridge Bank will adjust loan and account balances related to the Transferred Assets and the Assumed Liabilities, including the Assumed Deposits, as appropriate, to reflect offset rights and adjustments thereto that result from a depositor’s exercise of its rights under applicable law and the Receiver’s exercise of its rights under 12 U.S.C. § 1822(d) and 1823(e).

Section 4.08 Advance Dividends. Upon receipt of notice from the Receiver after the contribution described in Article II, the Bridge Bank (a) will adjust deposit account balances identified by the Receiver to reflect an advance dividend issued by the Receiver to the depositors that had uninsured deposit balances at the Failed Bank on the Bank Closing Date as verified by the Corporation’s deposit insurance determination (an “Advance Dividend”), and (b) assumes the liability to make the Advance Dividend available to the depositors identified by the Receiver. The Receiver will either (i) owe the Bridge Bank as a “due to/due from”, or (ii) pay the Bridge Bank in cash or in kind (any in kind payment will be valued for purposes of this Section 4.08 only in the Receiver’s reasonable discretion), an amount equal to the Advance Dividends reflected in the deposit account balances adjusted by the Receiver pursuant to this Section 4.08, at the Receiver’s discretion.

ARTICLE V FAILED BANK RECORDS

Section 5.01 Transfer of Failed Bank Records. The Receiver transfers all rights and interests, possession, custody, and control of the Bridge FB Records to the Bridge Bank, subject to the Receiver’s rights and interests in this Article V. The Bridge Bank acknowledges and agrees that it has custody of the Custodial FB Records, wherever located.

Section 5.02 Retention of Records.

(a) Retention Period. The Bridge Bank agrees to preserve, maintain, and store for the joint benefit of the Receiver, the Corporation, and the Bridge Bank the Custodial FB Records and the Bridge FB Records for six (6) years after the Bank Closing Date or such longer period as required by any applicable law, including 12 U.S.C. § 1821(d)(15)(D) and 12 C.F.R. § 360.11 (the “Retention Period”). The Receiver may direct the Bridge Bank to transfer custody of all or some portion of the Custodial FB Records to the Receiver, or a third-party at the Receiver's direction.

(b) Transferred Bank Records. At the time a Custodial FB Record becomes a Transferred Bank Record, the Bridge Bank will have no further obligation with regard to such Transferred Bank Record. The Bridge Bank may request access to the Transferred Bank Records as reasonably necessary to serve legitimate business purposes. The Receiver has no obligation to search the Transferred Bank Records or incur any cost or expense in connection with the Bridge Bank's request.

Section 5.03 Access, Use and Inspection. The Receiver and the Corporation have the right to access, use, and inspect the Covered Records as necessary for the Receiver to satisfy its obligations under all applicable law, as determined by the Receiver in its sole discretion. The Bridge Bank will permit the Receiver and the Corporation such access, use, and inspection without imposing any impediment and without requiring the Receiver or the Corporation to obtain a subpoena or court order to exercise the rights related to the Covered Records provided to the Receiver and the Corporation pursuant to this Article V. The Bridge Bank will permit the Receiver and the Corporation to make extracts from, request Copies of, and to duplicate any Covered Records, in the discretion of the Receiver or the Corporation. The Bridge Bank will provide any requested Copy, duplicate or extract to the Receiver or the Corporation, as appropriate, within five (5) business days after the request unless the Bridge Bank provides a notice to the Receiver pursuant to Section 5.08. The Bridge Bank must preserve, maintain, and store the Custodial FB Records and the Bridge FB Records in the form (e.g., electronic or paper), state, and condition and accessibility existing as of the Bank Failure Date. The Receiver may request an improved accessibility standard as long as such higher standard does not impose an undue burden on or cost to the Bridge Bank. The Bridge Bank will take no action that will impair the existing accessibility of, or ability to search, the Covered Records, unless consented to by Receiver.

Section 5.04 Subpoenas and Discovery Requests served upon the Bridge Bank. The Bridge Bank has the responsibility to respond to subpoenas, discovery requests, and other similar official inquiries with respect to the Covered Records served upon the Bridge Bank; provided however, if the Receiver determines, in its discretion, that its interests are or could be affected by such disclosure, the Receiver has the right to direct the Bridge Bank not to disclose the Covered Records so long as such non-disclosure is consistent with the Bridge Bank's obligations under law. Within two (2) Business Days after the Bridge Bank's receipt of any subpoena, discovery request, or other similar official inquiry with respect to the Covered Records, the Bridge Bank will provide notice to the Receiver, enclosing a copy of any subpoena, discovery request, or similar official inquiry, and will wait at least ten (10) Business Days after receiving such inquiry before providing a response.

Section 5.05 Subpoenas and Discovery Requests served upon the Receiver. At the Receiver's request and direction, the Bridge Bank will facilitate the Receiver's response to subpoenas and discovery requests and other similar official inquiries served upon the Receiver with respect to the Covered Records. At the Receiver's direction, the Bridge Bank will make a reasonable inquiry and perform a diligent search of the Covered Records in order to satisfy the Receiver's legal obligations. The Receiver may direct the Bridge Bank to provide documents to the Receiver or to produce documents to third-parties.

Section 5.06 Privilege. The Receiver retains all rights and does not waive the attorney-client privilege, the attorney-work-product doctrine, or any other cognizable privilege or protection of the Failed Bank by transferring the Custodial FB Records to the Bridge Bank. The Bridge Bank must maintain the Custodial FB Records to preserve any existing legal privilege. At its own cost and expense, the Bridge Bank will assert all privileges related to the Covered Records unless the Receiver consents to the waiver of any such privilege.

Section 5.07 Destruction. The Bridge Bank is prohibited from destroying any Custodial FB Records or Bridge FB Records for the duration of the Retention Period unless such records were more than ten (10) years old as of the Bank Closing Date.

Section 5.08 Costs and Expenses. The Bridge Bank is responsible for all costs and expenses related to the Covered Records and the Bridge Bank's performance of its obligations under this Article V, except that the Receiver will bear the cost of any Copies, duplicates, or extracts from the Covered Records requested by the Receiver at the Bridge Bank's actual costs, excluding Bridge Bank employee time. If the costs related to a request from the Receiver are expected to exceed $5,000.00 or if the Bridge Bank intends to retain a third-party contractor to fulfill the Receiver's request, the Bridge Bank must notify the Receiver before incurring any costs and receive the Receiver's consent prior to proceeding. These costs will be paid pursuant to Section 6.02(c).

Section 5.09 PII; Privacy. The Bridge Bank will comply with all laws, regulations, orders, writs, or decrees of any court or governmental authority regarding PII and privacy to the extent they apply to Covered Records.

Section 5.10 Transfer of Bridge FB Records or Custodial FB Records.

(a) Bridge FB Records-Bridge Bank Retains Copies. If the Bridge Bank sells or otherwise intends to transfer any Bridge FB Record to an Asset Recipient, the Receiver may require the Bridge Bank, or the Bridge Bank may choose, to retain copies of such Bridge FB Records in the form (e.g., electronic or paper), state, and condition and accessibility existing prior to such transfer to an Asset Recipient. The Bridge Bank acknowledges that any such copies immediately become Custodial FB Records subject to this Article V. On or before the transfer of any Bridge FB Records to an Asset Recipient where the Receiver requires the Bridge Bank, or the Bridge Bank chooses, to retain copies of the Bridge FB Records that will be transferred to an Asset Recipient, the Bridge Bank must certify to the Receiver that the Bridge Bank has retained copies of the Bridge FB Records in compliance with this Section 5.10(a).

(b) Custodial FB Records. The Bridge Bank will not transfer any Custodial FB Records to a third party without the Receiver's consent.

(c) Notices.

(i) If the Bridge Bank will retain copies of the Bridge FB Records being transferred to an Asset Recipient as provided in Section 5.10(a), the Bridge Bank must notify the Receiver of such transaction and provide a copy of all agreements with the Asset Recipient no less than five (5) days prior to the transfer of any Bridge FB Records to such Asset Recipient.

(ii) If the Bridge Bank prefers to impose the requirements of this Article V on an Asset Recipient as described in Section 5.10(d), the Bridge Bank must notify the Receiver no less than forty-five (45) days in advance of the transfer of any Bridge FB Records or Custodial FB Records, identifying the nature of the transaction, a summary description of the Bridge FB Records or Custodial FB Records that would be transferred to an Asset Recipient, and the proposed transfer date. If the Receiver (A) exercises its right to require the Bridge Bank to retain copies of the Bridge FB Records identified by the Bridge Bank, or (B) does not consent to the transfer of Custodial FB Records, the Receiver will notify the Bridge Bank of such determination no more than fifteen (15) days after the Receiver's receipt of the Bridge Bank's notice provided pursuant to this Section 5.10(c)(ii).

(d) Obligations Imposed on Transferee. If (i) the Bridge Bank does not choose to retain, and the Receiver does not require the Bridge Bank to retain, copies of Bridge FB Records being transferred to an Asset Recipient, or (ii) the Receiver consents to the Bridge Bank transferring custody of the Custodial FB Records to an Asset Recipient, the Bridge Bank must require, or cooperate with the Receiver to ensure, that any such Asset Recipient is contractually obligated to the Receiver and the Corporation to perform the obligations of the Bridge Bank set forth in this Article V with regard to any Covered Records transferred to any Asset Recipient. The form of the agreement establishing any Asset Recipient's obligations and the Receiver's and the Corporation's rights related to the Covered Records must be acceptable to the Receiver, in its sole discretion. Prior to the transfer of any Covered Records to an Asset Recipient, the Bridge Bank will provide an original executed version of such agreement to the Receiver.

Section 6.06 Cooperation in Investigations and Proceedings. In connection with any investigation, proceeding or other matter related in any manner to the Failed Bank or its Subsidiaries, the Bridge Bank will cooperate to the extent reasonably requested by the Receiver.

Section 6.07 Transfer of Assets and Liabilities. The Receiver and the Bridge Bank agree, upon the request of the other Party, to execute, record and deliver, as appropriate any such notices, instruments or documents of conveyance, or undertake any proceedings, as necessary to vest in the appropriate Party its full legal or equitable title in and to the assets, liabilities, obligations, Litigation, and Claims of the Failed Bank as allocated by this Agreement. The Bridge Bank is responsible for delivering all such notices, recording or filing any instruments or documents of conveyance necessary to meet its obligations under this Section 6.07 at its own cost and expense (including, without limitation, any taxes, fees, charges or other amount due by either Party as a result of or in connection with the transfer) within a reasonable time period after the Bank Closing Date. If necessary, the Bridge Bank will take all necessary actions to ensure that any Call Assets/Liabilities are in the name of the Receiver promptly after a Call Option has been exercised.

(b) Upon the Bridge Bank's failure to cause such removal and substitution within the stated time period, the Bridge Bank must immediately provide notice to the Receiver, and the Receiver may then elect, at any time, to conduct, dismiss or withdraw from the Transferred Litigation, or to have the Bridge Bank conduct such Transferred Litigation at the Bridge Bank's cost and expense. In any Transferred Litigation in which the Receiver has not been removed as the real party-in-interest, no settlement may be agreed upon by the Bridge Bank without the express prior consent of the Receiver, and such settlement must include an irrevocable and complete waiver and release of any and all Claims against the Receiver in relation to such Transferred Litigation by any Person.

Such notice must include a copy of any notice, subpoena, claim or court filing received by the Bridge Bank.

Section 7.03 Right to Defend or Settle. or any asset, liability, obligation, or Claims related to the Failed Bank. The exercise by the Receiver of any rights under this Section 7.03 does not release the Bridge Bank with respect to any of its obligations under this Agreement.

Section 7.04 Codefendants; Removal. If any action at law or in equity is instituted by any Person against the Receiver and the Bridge Bank as codefendants, the Bridge Bank will, at the request of the Receiver, join with the Receiver in removing the action to the United States District Court for the proper district.

ARTICLE VIII INDEMNIFICATION

Section 8.01 Indemnification of Bridge and Indemnites.

(a) Indemnification. Subject to the limitations and conditions in this Article VIII, the Receiver indemnifies and holds harmless the Indemnites against (i) any and all costs, losses, liabilities, and expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred prior to the assumption of defense by the Receiver pursuant to Section 8.01(b), and (ii) any judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with Claims and Litigation against any Indemnitee based on Retained Assets, Retained Claims, Retained Litigation, any other liability or obligation of the Failed Bank not expressly assumed by the Bridge Bank pursuant to this Agreement, and the actions and inaction of the Failed Bank or the Receiver; provided, however, (y) the Receiver has no obligation to the Indemnites under this Article VIII for any Claim based on the action or inaction of any Indemnitee (unless such action or inaction occurred as directed by the Receiver pursuant to notice from the Receiver), and (z) nothing in this Agreement will be construed to be an indemnification (1) for losses resulting from a reduction in the value of any Transferred Asset or any Transferred Litigation, (2) of the Failed Bank, (3) of any Subsidiary of the Failed Bank, or (4) of any present or former director, officer, employee or agent of the Failed Bank or any of its Subsidiaries.

(b) Conditions Precedent to Indemnification. It is a condition precedent to the obligation of the Receiver to indemnify any Indemnitee pursuant to this Article VIII that such Indemnitee must, with respect to any claim made or threatened against such Indemnitee for which such Indemnitee is or may be entitled to indemnification hereunder:

(i) give notice to the Receiver of such Claim within seven (7) calendar days after the Bridge Bank becomes aware of such Claim or a Claim is formally or informally asserted or threatened;

(ii) if suit is brought with respect to such Claim, provide notice to the Receiver within five (5) calendar days after receipt of service or notification of such suit and afford to the Receiver the right, which the Receiver may exercise in its discretion, to conduct the investigation, control the defense and effect settlement of such Claim, including the right to designate counsel and to control all negotiations, litigation, arbitration, settlements, compromises and appeals of any such Claim, all of which will be at the expense of the Receiver; provided that the Receiver must have notified the Indemnitee claiming

(iii) provide to the Receiver such information and cooperation with respect to such Claim as the Receiver may reasonably require;

(iv) cooperate and take all steps, as the Receiver may reasonably require, to preserve and protect any defense to such Claim;

(vi) not release or settle such Claim or make any payment or admission with respect thereto, unless the Receiver consents thereto; provided that the Receiver is not obligated to reimburse the amount of any such settlement or payment unless such settlement or payment was at the direction of the Receiver; and

(vii) take such action as the Receiver may reasonably require as necessary to preserve, protect or enforce the rights of the Indemnitee against any Primary Indemnitor.

(c) No Additional Warranty. Nothing in this Article VIII should be construed or deemed to provide any warranty, assurances or representations with regard to the Transferred Assets or the Assumed Liabilities.

(d) Obligations Supplemental. The obligations of the Receiver to provide indemnification under this Article VIII are to supplement any amount payable by any Primary Indemnitor to the Indemnitee indemnified under this Article VIII. Consistent with that intent, the Receiver will only make payments pursuant to this Article VIII to the extent not payable by a Primary Indemnitor. If the aggregated payments by the Receiver and all Primary Indemnitors with respect to any Claim subject to the Receiver's indemnification obligations under this Article VIII exceed the amount payable with respect to such Claim, the Bridge Bank must notify the Receiver and reimburse the Receiver any amounts paid by the Receiver that exceed the amount payable.

(e) Subrogation. Upon payment by the Receiver to any Indemnitee for any claims indemnified by the Receiver under this Article VIII, the Receiver will be subrogated to all rights of the Indemnitee against any other Person to the extent of such payment.

Section 8.02 Indemnification of Receiver and Corporation. Section 8.03 Limited Survival of Indemnification. The indemnification provided by the Receiver to the Indemnitees pursuant to Section 8.01 and the indemnification provided by the Bridge Bank to the Receiver and the Corporation pursuant to Section 8.02 survive the Termination Date only to the extent that an indemnified party provides a notice of a Filed Proceeding to the appropriate Party and such notice is received on or before the Termination Date. Assignment and Recovery Sharing Agreement

ASSIGNMENT AND RECOVERY SHARING AGREEMENT

THIS ASSIGNMENT AND RECOVERY SHARING AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”), dated _____, 2020, by and between [NAME OF SUBSIDIARY], a _____ corporation with its principal place of business in _____ (the “Assignor”); and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the “FDIC”) as receiver of _____ (the “Receiver”). The Assignor and Receiver may be referred to individually as a “Party” or collectively as the “Parties”.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, prior to [DATE OF BANK FAILURE] (the “Bank Closing Date”), [NAME OF FAILED BANK] (the “Failed Bank”) was an insured depository institution organized and existing under the laws of _____;

WHEREAS, on the Bank Closing Date, the [IDENTIFY THE BANK CLOSING AUTHORITY] closed the Failed Bank and pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 1821(c) the FDIC was appointed receiver;

WHEREAS, the Receiver succeeded to all rights, titles, powers and privileges of the Failed Bank, including those with respect to Assignor, as a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Failed Bank, in accordance with 12 U.S.C. § 1821(d); and

WHEREAS, Assignor will assign its rights, title, and interest in the Assigned Claims (defined below) to the Receiver, pursuant to the terms hereof.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, agreements, representations and promises contained in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the adequacy and receipt of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Definitions.

“Assigned Claims” means all of the Assignor’s right, title and interest in and to any Claim and Litigation against or relating to: [PLFCS will identify either the Persons and/or categories of claims to be assigned, to be inserted depending on the circumstances], to the extent that the acts, omissions, or other events giving rise to any such Claim occurred on or before the Bank Closing Date, regardless of when any such Claim is discovered and regardless of whether any such Claim is made with respect to a financial institution or fidelity bond, commercial crime policy, directors’ and officers’ liability insurance, or any other professional liability insurance or similar insurance policy of Assignor in force as of the Bank Closing Date.

“Books and Records” means originals or true copies of all of Assignor’s books, records, ledgers, files, documents, databases or other data and information in any form or medium and in any location whatsoever.

“Claim” means any and all actual or potential claims, rights to payment or other relief, demands, obligations, damages, actions and causes of action, suits, controversies, interest, costs, attorneys' fees, expenses, damages, or judgments whatsoever, direct or indirect, in law or in equity, whether known or unknown, now existing or hereafter arising, whether contingent or liquidated, contractual, extra-contractual, non-contractual, statutory, in tort or otherwise, of every kind, nature, and description.

“Consideration” has the meaning set forth in Section 3 of this Agreement.

“Copy” means a print out, replication, or reproduction of any paper, disk, tape, film, memory or storage device, whether it is digital, electronic or any other material or object on or in which any words, images, objects, code or other symbols are written, recorded or encoded, whether permanent or transitory.

“Full Resolution” means that the Assigned Claims have been fully and finally resolved by settlement, compromise, or final judgment (where appeal has been exhausted or time for appeal has expired) and all proceeds (including interest) due under the settlement, compromise or judgment have been paid to the Receiver, and/or the Receiver has closed out the Assigned Claims.

“Litigation” means any actual, existing, pending, or threatened cause of action, court action, administrative or regulatory action, claim, suit, appeal, proceeding, arbitration, mediation, bankruptcy action, or foreclosure to which the Assignor is a party or has rights to assert a claim or defense.

“Litigation Expenses” means all of the Receiver’s out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including any costs and fees for retained counsel, contractors, vendors, consultants and expert witnesses) incurred in connection with the investigation, litigation and settlement of the Assigned Claims.

“Net Recovery” means an amount calculated by deducting the Litigation Expenses from the total amount recovered by the Receiver on the Assigned Claims.

“Person” means any individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, joint-stock company, trust, unincorporated organization, or government or any agency or political subdivision thereof.

2. Assignment. For good and valuable consideration as set forth in this Agreement, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged by Assignor, Assignor irrevocably and unconditionally transfers and assigns all of its rights, title and interest in the Assigned Claims to the Receiver, which Receiver accepts. In its sole discretion, the Receiver may investigate, prosecute, defend, control, settle or compromise any and all of the Assigned Claims, in the name of Assignor or Receiver. Any settlement or compromise entered into by the Receiver related to the Assigned Claims must include a release of the Assignor to the same extent as the Receiver is released from the Claims and liability by all counterparties to such settlement or compromise, unless the Assignor consents otherwise.

3. Consideration; Recovery Sharing. The Receiver will pay to the Assignor fifty percent (50%) of any Net Recovery on the Assigned Claims, whether obtained by settlement, compromise or satisfied judgment (the “Consideration”). The Receiver will pay the Consideration to the Assignor within thirty (30) days after Full Resolution of the Assigned Claims; provided, however, that the Receiver in its sole discretion can make interim payment(s) before Full Resolution of the Assigned Claims. The Assignor is not entitled to share in the proceeds of any recovery by the Receiver on any Claim or Litigation that is not an Assigned Claim, including any direct Claim of the Receiver arising out of the failure of the Failed Bank. The Assignor has no liability to the Receiver related to (i) the Receiver’s internal expenses, or (ii) for the Litigation Expenses, regardless of whether the Receiver recovers any or all of the Litigation Expenses from the proceeds of the recovery on the Assigned Claims. The Receiver incurs the Litigation Expenses and pursues the Assigned Claims at its own risk.

4. Covenant Not To Sue. The Assignor warrants and covenants not to bring any Litigation or Claim against any Person arising out of the Assigned Claims and waives its rights to bring any such Litigation or Claim; provided, however, nothing in this Section 4 restricts the Assignor from asserting a Claim or pursuing Litigation against the Receiver to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

5. Cooperation.

a. Use, Access and Inspection of Assignor Books and Records. The Receiver has the right to access, use and inspect the Assignor’s Books and Records without having to provide a subpoena. The Assignor will permit the Receiver to make extracts from, request Copies of and to duplicate any Books and Records of Assignor, in the sole discretion of the Receiver. The Receiver will bear the cost of obtaining a Copy, duplicate or extract of any Assignor Book and Record at the rate set by 12 C.F.R. Part 309.5(f)(3). Assignor will provide any requested Copy, duplicate or extract to the Receiver within five (5) business days unless otherwise agreed.

b. Subpoenas and Discovery. The Receiver has the primary responsibility to respond to subpoenas, discovery requests, and other similar official inquiries with respect to the Assigned Claims. Assignor agrees to cooperate and assist the Receiver in responding to such subpoenas, requests and inquiries. Within two (2) business days after the Assignor’s receipt of any subpoena, discovery request, or other similar official inquiry with respect to the Assigned Claims, Assignor will provide notice to the Receiver, enclosing a copy of any subpoena, discovery request, or similar official inquiry.

b. Investigations and Proceedings. In connection with any investigation, proceeding or other matter related in any manner to the Assigned Claims, the Assignor will cooperate to the extent reasonably required by the Receiver, including making witnesses available for deposition, interviews and court proceedings.

6. Miscellaneous.

a. Governing Law. THIS AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER ARE GOVERNED BY AND WILL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE FEDERAL LAW OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND, IN THE ABSENCE OF CONTROLLING FEDERAL LAW, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE IN WHICH THE MAIN OFFICE OF ASSIGNOR IS LOCATED.
