Re: The pending execution of Richard Glossip

Dear General O'Connor,

At the request of a group of legislators, a highly respected national law firm, Reed Smith LLP, conducted an independent investigation into the 2004 murder-for-hire conviction of Richard Glossip and found serious problems with the trial. The report concluded that no reasonable juror who heard all the evidence would find Mr. Glossip guilty.

We appreciate your July 6th response to Mr. Glossip's successor petition waiving procedural defenses pertaining to his claim of factual innocence. Thank you for taking time to study the Reed Smith report and review the new evidence. We respectfully ask your office to please join in Mr. Glossip's request asking the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals to order an evidentiary hearing.

As elected officials representing the citizens of this great state, we believe it is vitally important to conduct a serious review of this case so that the truth might be conclusively found. Only in this way will we be certain the State of Oklahoma is not executing an innocent man.

Thank you for your consideration of our request.

Sincerely,
